

Iraq Doco Shadows Iran

Internationally Award-Winning Feature Documentary In the Shadow of the Palms kicks off in 2006, screening in Iran at the prestigious Fajr International Film festival.

The Critically Acclaimed Wayne Coles-Janess, Producer-Director of the Award-Winning In the Shadow of the Palms has been invited as a Guest to the Prestigious Fajr International Film Festival in Iran. Held in Tehran, the Festival showcases films across the Globe.

Screening alongside Films from the US and Europe, including the Roman Polanski feature Oliver Twist and the acclaimed George Clooney directed film Goodnight and Goodluck.

More than a hat-trick, Ipso-Facto Productions' drama and documentaries On the Border of Hometown, Life At The End Of The Rainbow, Bougainville-Our Island Our Fight and In The Shadow Of The Palms continue to receive critical acclaim at over 90 of the World's leading International Film Festivals including Clemont-Ferrand, Yamagata and Houston.

In The Shadow Of The Palms continues to attract critical acclaim. It screened alongside the only other Australian film Look Both Ways at the International Film Festival of India and the Chennai International Film Festival. The film has since spread it's Palms across boundaries, cultures and political affiliations, moving through Europe and Asia to North America in 2006.

In The Shadow Of The Palms has been invited to the upcoming London Australian Film Festival, and the Thessaloniki International Film Festival in Greece.

