

In The Shadow Of The Palms

Hyderabad International Film Festival

Wayne Coles-Janess was invited to the launch of the Hyderabad International Film Festival to screen the Internationally Multi-Award Winning Feature Film In the Shadow of the Palms.

"The film is now recognised as the best one that documents lives of people in Iraq" reports Sangeetha Deivi in India's National Press The Hindu.

"The objective of the Hyderabad International Film Festival is for the filmmakers of the world to - project their excellence of film art contributing to understanding and appreciation of film cultures of different nations in the context of their social and cultural ethics and promoting cooperation among the world's population" says Festival Director Mr BH. S.S. Prakash Reddy.

Other international guests were Consul-General H.E. Ms Nabila Salama - Egypt, H.E. Mr Hossein Ravesh - Iran, Algerian Ambassador H.E. Dr Nouredine Bardad-Daidj, Cultural Counsellor, Embassy of France, Mr Philippe Martinet, and filmmakers Sri K. Vishwanath, Sri B. Narsing Rao, Sri Tamma Reddy Bharadwaja and actress Smt Jayasudha.

Hyderabad, the capital of Andhra Pradesh in the southern part of India. This is one of the most important cities of India for its rich historical and cultural heritage and the second largest film-producing centre in India. Film lovers had a variety fare in sections like world cinema, classics, country focus, Indian cinema, Telugu cinema and documentaries.

The Internationally Multi-Award Winning Feature Film In the Shadow of the Palms screens in Hyderabad only one month after Winning a Special Mention at the Indian Cine Film Festival. It has been invited to over 60 International Film Festivals around the World and continues to impress Audiences across Cultures and Continents.